ACTING LOCALLY, INSPIRING GLOBALLY

Bala Vikasa is an international nonprofit impacting 5+ million lives in India with successful community-driven sustainable development (CDD) interventions over the past 44 years. PDTC shares successful CDD strategies, best practices, tools and methodologies acquired over these four decades, with global development practitioners through the training programs.

TEACHING WHAT WE DO | SHOWING WHAT WE TEACH

PDTC has trained 13,900+ development professionals in 81 countries, inspiring them to design, implement, monitor, and evaluate sustainable development programs using their learning at PDTC. The CSDS course has international recognition as an excellent foundation in sustainable community-driven development, with its cohesive combination of theoretical modules and virtual exposure to grassroots.

MODULE 1

Triggering Personal Development

Neuro-Linguistic Programming and Appreciative Inquiry

LEAD
YOURSELF

Get trained on the principles of AI and how you can use it as a positive tool, to access your personal strengths and resources. Become empowered with the techniques of NLP, to create your own personal state of excellence, by changing unwanted behaviors and linguistic habits.

Apply these tools to improve your skills in persuasion, sales, negotiation, management, training, teaching, coaching, team building, and public speaking.

MODULE 2

Enhancing Professional Capabilities

Strategic Planning and
Result-Based Management (RBM)

LEAD
ORGANIZATIONS

With discussions and exercises in Strategic Planning, vision and mission, macro and micro environmental scoping, and SWOT, learn to examine the fundamentals of your organization, and analyze its path. Get a new perspective on Result-Based Management principles and philosophy.

Improve program delivery and ensure formulated results, increased monitoring, informed decision-making, reporting, transparency and accountability

MODULE 3

Strengthening Domain Knowledge

Asset Based Sustainable Community-
Driven Development

LEAD
COMMUNITIES

Get acquainted with the Community-Driven Development model and learn about the five pillars of sustainable development. Get introduced to the paradigm of Asset-Based Community Development and process of Asset Mapping. Take notes from the Development Principles of Bala Vikasa.

Take a virtual tour of villages to see our successful initiatives in Model Villages, Women, and Safe Water, to gain valuable insights from the grassroots directly.
