

Suggestions for your fund raising

Need some ideas?

- Bake sale (where the group members bake and sell goods at school);
- Install a stand during the year-end concert at school to receive donation from the community;
- Small jobs for the neighbours;
- Do chores at home;
- Hot lunch sale for the students of the school;
- Movie night (voluntary donations) and sell popcorn and soft drinks;
- Recycling bottles;
- Send letters to the local businesses asking for donations/ sponsoring;
- Organise a garage sale; (the students brought in their own toys, books etc. to sell during the lunch hour);
- Organize a mini concert;
- Gather recipes from home to put together and sell a cookbook;
- Sell water glasses in a refreshment stand;
- Collect used books and sold them;
- Dancing contest
- Collect money from community by going door to door;
- Organise a video game tournament;
- Sell bottles of water in their neighbourhood;
- Sell TCBY frozen yogurt to students during the lunch time;
- Talent show and charge for the entrance;
- Organize a Karaoke;

- Organize a diving competition and ask for an entrance fee;
- Make a “guess how many sweets are in the bowl!” competition, charge 25¢ by participant;
- Make a crazy hair day where each student brings in 1$;
- Start a paper fabric business to make and sell greeting cards;
- Organised a lipsing show and present SOPAR’s video at the beginning to raise funds;
- Table football contest;
- Looking for black cents! Children have looked everywhere in the city to find out the lost cents;
- Classroom competition (Very good way to have new initiatives);
- Water walk: Transporting a pot of water on many kilometres;
- Spelling bee contest with benefits going towards the project;
- Selling fair trade chocolate or faire trade coffee in the neighbourhood;
- Costume party (in the beach, in the mountain, in Asia, etc.) $0.5 the entrance;
- Organise a spaghetti dinner;
- Treasure Hunt;
- Quiz on India, on water and on education (with a price for the winner);
- Ping-Pong tournament;
- Fashion show with ecological designers;
- Book-thon, the relatives choose books for the youngest students and for every page read by the child, the relatives give 25 ¢;
- Bingo.
- Participate in our Walk for Water, on World Water Day, (March 22nd) to mobilize your students and your community. Using Walk for Water is a great fundraising tool in your community (media event, sponsors & donators) to raise the money for the construction of your well!

